A direct line of steamships between Baltimore and Europe is soon to be established. At a recent sale of government vessels in New York, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company purchased three screw steamers and intend to put them, without delay, in operation as a line of ocean steamers.

Ex-Governor Brown, of Georgia, has issued an address to the people of that State. He urges them to support not only the Government of the United States, but the administration of the present Chief Magistrate. He appeals to them for their own sakes, in order that they may receive the benefits to result, to take the oath of amnesty, and to observe it in good faith. To those who have conscientiously adhered to slavery, and have on principle opposed its abolition, he advances the argument that that question is now settled forever, and should not be longer considered. To those who cannot support the Constitution of this Government he suggests emigration from the country.

—The pardon bureau of the Attorney General's office under Mr. Pleasants, is still overwhelmed with applications for Executive clemency. Among the applications received on Saturday and Monday were Gustavus A. Henry, rebel Senator from Tennessee; H. W. Willard, formerly member, of the United States Congress from Alabama, but not an active participator in the rebellion; J. D. Halliburton, formerly United States District Judge for Virginia; G. N. Hollins, formerly of the United States Navy, notorious for having bombarded Greytown, Nicaragua, and for having commanded the ram fleet dispersed by Farragut before New Orleans; A. J. Hartsteine, formerly of the United States Navy, and prominent in Arctic explorations; Jas. H. Lane, Brigadier General in the rebel army from North Carolina. The rebel Governors A. G. Magrath, of South Carolina, and A. B. Moore, of Alabama, are the most prominent applicants to-day.

—The race horse "Legal Tender," ran a mile in 1m. 44s. at the Cincinnati races. This is the fastest mile ever ran in America, that is authenticated. Mammora ran a mile in 1m. 44½s., and Idlewild in 1m. 44½s.

—Elections will take place as follows: Kentucky, Members of Congress and State Treasurer, first Monday in August; Vermont, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and State Treasurer, first Tuesday in September; Maine, Governor and Legislature, second Monday in September.

—It is estimated that there still remain in Texas from one hundred thousand to one hundred and fifty thousand bales of the old crop of cotton, while, owing to various unfavorable circumstances, it is thought that this year's crop will not exceed fifty thousand bales. It is also calculated that there are with in the State, accumulated during the war, five million pounds of wool.

—At the races at Poughkeepsie between a steam-wagon, a pedestrian, and a horse, the wagon won in each race. The wagon made the mile in two minutes twenty seconds, the man ran it in five minutes twenty seconds, and the horse's time was two minutes thirty-seven and a half seconds.

—A man named Brophy having published a statement derogatory to the character of Lewis A. Welchman, an important witness for the prosecution in the trial of the Washington assassination conspirators, and designed to impeach his testimony, Mr. Welchman has published a reply in which he pronounces Brophy's statement to be false from beginning to end, and says that his statement was submitted to the President once, and to Judge Advocate General Holt twice, before the execution, without having any effect on these gentlemen.

—The Secretary of the Interior, in a communication of instructions to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, states that in future dealings with hostile Indians the Interior Department will subordinate its action to the policy and operations of the War Department, and the Commissioner is requested to instruct the superintendents and agents to make no deliveries of money or goods to any tribes or bands in hostility to the government, and to suspend all intercourse with them, excepting so far as may be sanctioned by the officers of the War Department.

—Isaac M. Veitch, Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge I. O. Odd Fellows, has issued his proclamation inviting and exhorting all Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments throughout the United States to send representatives to the Grand Lodge of the United States, to assemble at Baltimore on the third Monday of September next. For four years the Southern Grand Lodge and Grand Encampments have not been represented, and the Most Worthy Grand Sire expresses the hope that the brotherhood may renew its fraternal intercourse, and that "its great heart may ever vibrate in unison with the teachings of charity."

STATE ITEMS—Original and Selected.

The country around Charlotte has recently been blessed with good rains, and the prospect for an abundant crops was never better.

Cotton has recently taken an upward tendency, and sells readily in the Charlotte market at 25 to 30 cents per pound (currency) according to quality and condition.

The corn crop in the neighborhood of Salisbury has a very promising appearance. It at present looks very fine.

It would appear that the provost guard in Wilmington is very efficient. The Herald says that they closed up five saloons yesterday that were selling in violation of the order issued on last Friday.

There have been some recent changes in the officers at the post of Charlotte. Col. J. C. McQuiston of the 128d Indiana Regiment, commands the Brigade on duty in that section—office at the Mint.

The 130th Ohio has been relieved, and the 128d Indiana is present Post garrison. Lt. Col. Dewitt C. Walters is Post Commandant; Lieut. A. G. Wood, Post Adjutant—office at the N. C. Bank; and Capt. June E. Greene, Provost Marshal—office at Charlotte Bank.

The Wilmington Herald says that the Wil., Char. & Ruth. Railroad has been fully repaired and opened for traffic from Wilmington to its western terminus. Glad to hear it

At Charlotte, Dr. Wm. Sloan has been appointed agent of the United States Treasury Department.—The Democrat is gratified at Dr. Sloan's appointment, because we think it much better for all concerned to have our own citizens fill government offices in our midst than strangers.

THE CITY.

Meeting of Stockholders of the R. & G. R. R.—We have delayed mention of the meeting of the Stockholders of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, which took place Thursday afternoon, in the expectation that the official report of their deliberations would be handed in yesterday evening. But, as the probability is that the Secretary has not completed the work, we have to say that virtually nothing was accomplished. It was found upon examination that the charter made it requisite for a majority of the stock to be represented, and that under ruling of the Provisional Governor, Mr. Holden, only those stockholders could act who could range themselves under one or another of the heads of the 14 excepted classes of Johnson's proclamation. This defeated the real object of the convocation, we presume, though such a decision was actually required. An adjournment, at all events, was effected to the 4th of August next.

We learn that no changes were made in the old officers of the road.

In Monday's paper we hope to print the proceedings at length.

The Liquor Traffic—In a Good Humor.—It is surprising to note the different effects produced by the ardent when freely imbibed. Yesterday we saw one jocund soldier, that

"As simpling o'er the flowery hills he strayed,
And sang, in spite of his blue jacket, with perfect gusto, "the bonnie blue flag," evidently feeling that real not paper peace had been established between the North and the South. Another, much less like a gentleman in appearance, swung from one side of the street to the other; another was so bellicose as to threaten vengeance to his best friends, while others could only locomote when sustained on either flank by sober companions.

These sights are not unfamiliar to people who promenade Fayetteville or indeed any other street. And yet we are gratified to believe that whiskey is not dispensed here in unlicensed quantities as a month since. Its total suppression is esteemed an impossibility—indeed, unless as a matter of volition, we are opposed to compulsory measures against the appetite except in so far as its freedom jeopards public peace and order. It will be quite enough for the thanks of the community if the military succeed in confining its use so that decency and individual rights may not be violated.

Enterprise and Business.—Raleigh begins to show some signs of vitality in a business point of view. Improvements in the capacity of her stores is not the only feature in which we see the evidence of advancement;—it appears to be at last recognized that there is such a science as taste and internal beauty,—and accordingly many of the foremost men in the community in mercantile pursuits are giving attention to such ornamentation. But the expansion of business is not less promising. We know of one firm who, in a few weeks, will open in this city a stock of goods of $10,000 value, and the probability is strong that there are others here who, not willing to be outstripped, may determine upon like increase of their facilities for trade. At all events, the future is bright in promise, and it may be that our place will have in the to-come a higher prosperity than heretofore. It will be so if we are only true to our local interests.

Immigration.—The tide of immigration from country to city was perhaps never so general as at this moment. Yesterday not only was the regular market space occupied by the carts and other vehicles of our "country cousins," but a pour pressure was made on Fayetteville street, north and south. It is one of the "straws" which show how the political winds blow and unmistakably indicate that the people, weary of politics, have acquiesced in the new order of things, and are turning from inclination as well as necessity their attention to the practical affairs of life.

Prices are still coming down. Yesterday beef was offered at 10 cents, and heavy at that price; Irish potatoes sold at 75 cents per bushel; Eggs 25 cents per dozen; Butter 25 cents per pound; Shoat 15 cents per pound; and so on ad infinitum.

Water-melons, peaches, apples and the like, were abundant and at such prices as not to forbid any class of our people from purchasing.

Bank Meeting.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of North Carolina is to be held in this city on the 26th inst., next Tuesday, and in referring to the fact, the Charlotte Democrat remarks that there "ought to be a full attendance of the stockholders in person, and that some conclusion should be arrived at speedily as to what the Bank shall do. If it cannot commence business, let it go into liquidation without incurring further expense. The stockholders are pecuniarily interested, and if possible should attend the meeting Raleigh on Tuesday next."

We do not object to the suggestions made, but merely wish to say that there is every prospect of a full attendance of the stockholders, who will no doubt show both wisdom and prudence in the course they may deem it best to adopt.

Provost's Sanctum.—Although the office was crowded during nearly the whole day, nothing of much importance to the public generally was acted upon.

A negro boy drew a revolver, one of the ancient pepper box order, on two boys who were imposing on him, and in consequence was committed to the barracks.

Allen Johnson, first cousin of a man by the name of Andrew Johnson, subscribed to the oath yesterday, or rather made his mark, as he was unable to write.

A negro man had his knife and tobacco stolen, but could not find the criminals when furnished with a guard.

The heat of the weather not only depressed the officials, but repressed many visitors whose complaints were not of sufficient import to induce them to encounter the melting rays of old Sol.

Break Down.—Mr. Benj. Sherwood, of Augusta, Ga., who has been sojourning here for a month past, met with an accident last evening on the Hillsboro' road, which nearly cost him his life. Driving in a buggy at rather a rapid speed, one of the wheels came off, throwing him and Miss Jennie H. Morrin from the seat into the road. The young lady, who is a Virginian, was considerably bruised about the shoulder and face, but no limbs were broken. Mr. S. had the skin rasped off his hands and face, and considers himself fortunate; others have had his limbs broken or suffered a worse fate. The gentleman of the animal driven alone, perhaps, saved the party.

The Diggers.—The Philadelphia Press says there are five hundred barrels of yellow sand stored at Gosport for the feminines South. We simply wish to say that but a small portion of the ice will find customers in Raleigh. Not one of the of our ladies are accustomed to indulge in this elegant practice of nose and tea-bone.

Affray and Restraint.—John Rhodes, a colored boy, and employed in this city, was attacked by two soldiers about noon last Thursday, in the vicinity of Guion's old hotel. They were drunk and duly administered to John a few blows before, recognizing that discretion is the better part of valor, he retreated in good order and thus saved his bacon. There is a perfect antipathy to the blacks on the part of many of the soldiers, and they not unfrequently display it by physical demonstrations with fist and stick. Others, however, fleming them in an equally offensive manner.

Raleigh still Behind.—The neglect of returning Confederate soldiery by the citizens of Raleigh is provoking unpleasant commentary even from parties connected with the Federal Government, and facing a stigma upon us in the estimation of every body and everywhere. At Salisbury and elsewhere in the State the citizens spread the depots and provide for the ready ones in all respects. It ought to be so here. Is there not enough city and State pride in our midst to wipe out the stain of past neglect.

Postponed.—The meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad has been postponed to Tuesday, the 1st day of August next.

Personal.—We are glad to see that Col. Tod. R. Caldwell, Gov. Holden's Private Secretary, is on duty at the Cap'tol.

Gone Home.—Col. David Coleman, of the 25th N. C. Regiment, passed through this city a few days since from Texas, and is now at home in Buncombe county.

Broke Down.—The down freight train for Goldsboro', yesterday, broke down at some point on the road and as a consequence no mail reached here from the South last evening, the obstructions preventing the passing of the up passenger coaches.

At Blumenthal's Soda Fountain, on Fayetteville street, Thursday, the thermometer ranged as below:

9 a. m.	88	1 p. m.	91
10 "	89	2 "	92
11 "	89½	3 "	92½

OF THE PUREST
Medicines, Chemicals, Wine, Brandy, Porter, (Choicest Brands,) Cigars, Tobacco, Window Glass, Paints, Oils, Brushes, Dye Stuffs and the Latest and most Fashionable and Splendid Toilet Articles, Soaps, Perfumery, &c., &c., &c., at Pescud's Drug Store.
(Established January, 1844.)

THROUGH THE KINDNESS OF FRIENDS I HAVE been enabled to resume business, and have just returned from the Northern cities, and am now receiving a well selected and most desirable stock of all the articles usually found in a Drug Store, to which I ask the attention of old and new friends.

Having to buy exclusively for CASH, and relying alone upon the proceeds of sales to keep my stock renewed, I shall expect the cash, and hope no one will ask for credit, as I am not able to give it. Special cases satisfactory arrangements will be made.

A New Enterprise.

I have also accepted an agency from one of the largest Importing and Jobbing Houses in the Union, and am prepared to issue to dealers, at the lowest Northern prices of all that they need in the Drug business, and will forward their orders, receive and forward their invoices for a small commission. CASH must invariably accompany the order.

Thereby Druggists, Physicians and Dealers in Drugs, or anything in the Drug line, need not go North, but can save time, trouble, and a handsome percentage by sending me a list of their wants, which I will price to them, they may know what amount to remit.

Any Bill under $200 I can furnish as low to order, at the usual profit, as my Drug Store. I hope to receive and merit a liberal patronage. P. P. PESCUD.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1865.

NEWS

The PROGRESS is acknowledged, on all hands, as one of the best newspapers in the South. As a fair specimen of our energy in procuring late news, we challenge any one to produce a better *news*paper in the State than our issue this morning. On our Fourth Page will be found the most important events of the day, duly chronicled in advance of the mails, which fact we owe to the success of our messengers and news agents, in procuring northern papers at Fortress Monroe, Norfolk and Petersburg, and forwarding them to us by express. Our expenses are great; but we are fully repaid by the gratification occasioned by "beating" every one of our cotemporaries.

Children should be Seen and not Heard.

The "Little Child"—we use its own chosen appellation—is much afraid that "a government of thirty millions of brave people" will chastise it for its puerile misdemeanors. There is, perhaps, some cause for its whinings, and with the lack of foresight, which usually characterizes children, it continually increases the cause, by the publication of articles showing the disloyal under-current which controls the sentiment of "this little child" For the benefit of all concerned, in order that its opinions may be spread before a large number of the citizens of North Carolina, we extract from the child's prattle, of yesterday morning, the following article:

We have received a gentle rap on the knuckles from the Standard, which we take as becomes us. We do not quite agree with that print, however. We think we are making a very good Record. But "degustibus, &c."

We do not think it either decent or manly, in us, late members of the Southern Confederacy, to wish Jefferson Davis hung on a sour apple tree. If those whom he has offended choose to hang him, we submit in silence—though it will certainly be in sorrow.

He was unanimously made our President. He may have abused the power we gave him. We think that in some very important particulars he did mistake their extent. We have always disapproved such acts—but we have never considered him corrupt—or a tyrant. We deem him in many things to have been opinionated, even obstinate sometimes, in error; but we hope he will never be hanged Most people make mistakes; if we are judged severely, who can stand? The temptation of those high in office, are very trying, and well may such pray, "to be delivered"

Time is a great restorer. Not long ago, there was the hunting cry of "Davis and Vance"—sometimes it was varied to "Vance and Davis"—par nobile fratrum—both candidates for the gallows—both equally denounced as Traitors, and equally deserving of death. But since it has been known that Gov. Vance has been released from captivity, by the intercession of Gov. Holden—the tune is changed, and Jeff. Davis is doomed to tread the wine press alone. The same great restorer and mediator Time, may yet work a similar change towards this last example of fallen greatness.

We are not alone in our estimate of the proclivities of the juveniles who run the editorial quill of the Record. There are others in this city, and all over the State, who stand ready to denounce the animosity to the Government, and the affectionate regard for the Confederate usurpation, which they clearly evince in their "poor sickly lucubrations." In support of this statement, we quote the following from the Standard of yesterday:

But really who is to blame for this delay in the restoration of civil government? Such secessionists as the Editors of that paper, [the Record] who dunged us into war and anarchy, and whose presence in all the civil positions of the government, now obstruct the path to restoration. If they had not been in power they would not have to be removed now, in order to place more loyal men in their places. This is the true reason why restoration is so very slow, and it ill becomes such persons to complain. * * * * *

And let it be borne in mind, moreover, that it was just such precipitate bodies as the Record now desires to have summoned, which governed this State into rebellion. We have had enough of this ill advised and hasty action, and it is better for North Carolina to take her own time in reorganizing, and do the work rightly, than to be plunging off after Mississippi or other States, when such a difference in the facilities of communication exists, and is irremediable in our case. * * * * *

There is a flavor about these articles that reminds one strongly of the defunct presses of the so-called Confederacy. It is not a healthy tone, bracing up the hearts of the people to their duty. It is the note of discontent, it is the muttering of a grumbling few. We may be mistaken, but we think we are not.

North Carolina.

Aside from the personal advantages which will most assuredly accrue to our energetic fellow citizens, Messrs. Battle, Heck & Co., they are doing an immense deal of good for the old North State by attracting the attention of the whole world to her present condition and inducements for immigration. We extract the following from the Washington correspondence of the New York Herald of the 17th:

Advices from North Carolina represent the people as very generally anxious to welcome the advent of emigration from the North and the influx of Northern capital.—Large amounts of real estate have been put upon the market at reasonable rates, and the proposed emigration is a subject in which Governor Holden takes a deep interest. For the purpose of furnishing the Northern people with the fullest information on this subject, Colonel J. M. Hecks and K. P. Battle, two of the leading business men of the State, are about to visit New York and other cities, and will establish land and emigration agencies, which will co operate with a general agency already established at Raleigh, and aid much toward throwing open the agricultural and commercial advantages of North Carolina.

From the same department of the New York Times of the same date, we take the following:

"Efforts are already being made to promote immigration to North Carolina on an extensive scale. Gov. Holden and the leading union men of the state realize that its social and political regeneration must come by the influx of northern capital and energy, and for this purpose a general land and immigration agency has been established at Raleigh, which is intended to bring to the notice of the emigrants and capitalists the mineral and agricultural resources of the state. The agency had hardly been opened before over 100,000 acres of land, and many mill sites, town and city lots were offered for sale. The want of money is very great, and prices of real estate are reasonable. Col J. M. Heck, and K. P. Battle, Esq., two of the leading business men of the state, have arrived in this city, and will proceed north, to lay before the leading commercial associations of the principal cities and the people generally, the advantages offered for investments in North Carolina. Branch offices will be organized in these cities under the auspices of the Raleigh agency, for furnishing applicants with all necessary information concerning this excellent project. These gentlemen represent the people of North Carolina as not only generally willing, but anxious to see the tide of northern emigration set towards their state; and in this respect they exhibit a striking contrast with the morose and sullen conduct of most of the people of Virginia. As a general thing the people of the old north state are firmly of the opinion that the prosperity of the state can only be restored by fostering emigration, and by such a hearty submission to the Union and the laws as will assure capitalists that their investments are safe beyond a doubt.

The little boys in Troy now amuse themselves in the streets by playing the new and popular game of "Jeff Davis," as follows. Each in turn put on an old hoop-skirt and bonnet, runs away and is pursued and captured by the others, representing the Union soldiers, who amid great noise and confusion, confine him a prisoner in some unfortunate neighbor's area, and laugh at him through the bars until the occupants of the house chase the rogues away.

PROCLAMATION,

By William W. Holden, Provisional Governor,

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, By the Proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, dated May 29th, 1865, I have been appointed Provisional Governor of the State of North Carolina, with instructions to "prescribe, at the earliest practicable period, such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for convening a Convention, composed of delegates to and chosen by that portion of the people of said State who are loyal to the United States, and no others, for the purpose of altering or amending the Constitution thereof; and with authority to exercise within the limits of said State all the power necessary and proper to enable such loyal people of the State of North Carolina to restore said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, and to present such a republican form of State Government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection, and domestic violence":—

And WHEREAS, It is proper that the people of the State should be informed as far as may be at this time, of the measures that will be necessary to attain this end, so that they may be ready to offer an intelligent and willing co-operation in the same:—"

And WHEREAS, It is also proper that the purposes of the Federal Government in relation to the people of the State should be made known, so that the loyal may receive assurances of protection and encouragement, and the disloyal, if any there be, may know that the eye of authority is upon them, and that they will not be permitted with impunity to resist the laws or to disturb the peace of society:—

Now, Therefore, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor as aforesaid, do proclaim and declare:—

1st. That a Convention of the people of North Carolina will be held, at as early a period as practicable, to be composed of the number of members to which the Counties are respectively entitled in the House of Commons of the State Legislature. No person will be a candidate for the Convention, and no person will vote for members to compose it, who shall not previously thereto have taken and subscribed to the following oath, prescribed in the Proclamation of the President of the United States, dated May 29th, 1865:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear or affirm, in presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Union of the States thereunder; and that I will in like manner abide by and faithfully support all laws and proclamations which have been made during the existing rebellion with reference to the emancipation of slaves. So help me God."

And no person not well-affected towards the Federal Government, and not loyal thereto, will be permitted to take said oath, or to vote in said election.

Measures will be perfected as early as practicable for administering the above oath to such persons as may be entitled to take it, and for providing them with certificates of the same as evidence of their loyalty. The said oath is regarded as a part of the benefits of the Proclamation referred to, and will not be administered to any of the classes excluded by said Proclamation, save on the exhibition by them of a full pardon from the President of the offence they may have committed against the United States.

2d. The Convention thus to be called will alter or amend the Constitution of the State, and will submit said Constitution thus altered or amended, to the voters of the State at the ballot-box for their acceptance or rejection.

3d. The Convention will provide for the election by the people of a Governor and members of the Legislature; and the Legislature will elect two Senators to represent the State in the Congress of the United States.

4th. An election will also be held in due time, for members of the House of Representatives from the State in the Congress of the United States.

Inasmuch as there are no civil magistrates in this State, nor State officers of any kind, the Provisional Governor [illegible] authority in him vested by the President of the United States, will proceed:

1st. To appoint Justices of the Peace for the various Counties, loyal men, by whom the above oath will be administered, and who will also conduct the elections, through subordinates, for members of a Convention, in accordance with instructions from this office, and agreeably to the laws of this State in force previously to the 20th day of May, 1861.

2d. Superior Courts of Oyer and Terminer will be held, when necessary, by Judges specially appointed and commissioned, to dispose of criminal cases.

3d. The Justices of the Peace, appointed as aforesaid, will be authorized to hold Courts for the transaction of all such business as may not be of the class of cases triable by a jury. The Justices, by a majority of their whole number, will also be authorized to appoint their Sheriffs and their Clerks for the time being, and such other officers as may be indispensable to a proper transaction of business. And they will also be vigilant and will exert themselves to maintain the laws and to promote the peace of society in their respective counties, and especially to arrest and commit for trial, when the Courts may be held, all offenders against any law of the State in force previous to the 20th May, 1861; and to allow bail where the case is bailable, according to the usage of the State.

4th. The Provisional Governor will appoint the State Directors and State proxies in the various corporations in which the State is interested, as the exercise of such power by him cannot be avoided. But the control of the Railroads, the Asylums, and other corporations in which the State is interested, thus unavoidably to this extent committed to him, will be relinquished for the action of the Convention when that body shall have assembled.

Such in brief is an outline of the policy deemed necessary to reconstruct the government of North Carolina, and to restore the State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government.

And now, as Provisional Governor of the State, I invite the loyal people thereof to resume with cheerfulness, and with confidence in the future, their accustomed pursuits; and I invite those who have been driven from the State by despotic power, to return; assuring all loyal citizens of the State that they will be protected in their persons and property, and encouraged in their exertions to improve their condition. I also exhort them not to cease to take an interest in public affairs, but to unite with me in the purpose to reconstruct the State Government through the aid of loyal citizens; and to be vigilant and active in discouraging disloyal sentiments, and ensuring the election of known friends of the Federal Government to every office. Your experience, fellow citizens, during the rebellion, should attach you by the strongest ties to the government of the United States.—You have just been delivered by the armies of the Union from one of the most corrupt and rigorous despotisms that ever existed in the world. Many of you have been forced for conscience sake, and because of your love for the flag of your fathers, to fly from the land of your birth or of your adoption, and seek a refuge among strangers, to escape the hand of arbitrary power. Many of you have been torn from your homes, or hunted down like wild beasts in the forest, and forced into the rebel armies as conscripts, to fight for the continued enslavement of the colored race, and also for a state of slavery for yourselves and your children. Some of you have been subjected to imprisonment and tortures on account of your opinions; and all of you have been deprived, for years, up to a recent period, of freedom of speech and of the press, and of every essential guarantee of liberty and of protection to person and property, which is contained in the Constitution of the United States. By your sufferings in the past, and by your hopes for the future, I entreat you to [illegible] your friendship. Remember that all that you have and all you can hope to be, and all of great that is reserved for your children, are intimately bound up with the American Union. The unity of government which constitutes us one people, should be more dear to us than ever, on account of the sufferings through which we have passed. In the language of WASHINGTON, "it is of infinite moment that you should properly estimate the immense value of your national Union to your collective and individual happiness; that you should cherish a cordial, habitual, and immovable attachment to it; accustoming yourselves to think and to speak of it as the palladium of your political safety and prosperity; watching for its preservation with jealous anxiety; discountenancing whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can in any event be abandoned; and indignantly frowning upon the first dawning of every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest or to enfeeble the sacred ties which now link together the various parts."

To the colored people of the State I would say, you are now free. Providence has willed that the very means adopted to render your servitude perpetual, should be His instruments for releasing you from bondage. It now remains for you, aided as you will be by the superior intelligence of the white race, and cheered by the sympathies of all good people, to decide whether the freedom thus suddenly bestowed upon you, will be a blessing to you or a source of injury. Your race has been depressed by your condition of slavery, and by the legislation of your former masters, for two hundred years. It is not to be expected that you can comprehend and appreciate as they should be comprehended and appreciated by a self governing people, the wise provisions and limitations of Constitutions and laws; or that you can now have that knowledge of public affairs which is necessary to qualify you to discharge all the duties of the citizen. No people has ever yet bounded at once into the full enjoyment of the right of self-government.—But you are free, in common with all our people, and you have the same right, regulated by law, that others have, to enter upon the pursuit of prosperity and happiness. You should henceforth sacredly observe the marriage relation, and you should provide for your offspring. You can now not only learn to read yourselves, as some of you have been able to do heretofore, but you can instruct others, and procure instruction from others for yourselves and your children, without fear of punishment. But to be prosperous and happy you must labor, not merely when you feel like it, or for a scanty support, but industriously and steadily, with a view to making and laying up something for yourselves and your families. If you are idle you will become vicious and worthless; if vicious and worthless you will have no friends, and will at last perish. "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread all the days of thy life." The same Providence that has bestowed freedom upon you, has told you that diligence in business is required of all his creatures; and you cannot expect that your race will escape ultimate extinction, if you wilfully violate or disregard this, one of His great commands. Freedom does not mean that one may do as he pleases, but that every one may, by industry, frugality and temperance, improve his condition and enjoy the fruits of his own labors, so long as he obeys the laws. I have no prejudice against you. On the contrary while I am a white man, and while my lot is with my own color, yet I sympathize with you as the weaker race; and I cannot forget that during the rebellion many of you fought for the preservation of the Union, and that those of you who remained at home in the then slaveholding States, were, for the most part, docile and faithful, and made no attempt, by force of arms to gain even their own freedom. I will see to it, as far as I can, that you have your liberty; that you are protected in your property and persons; and that you are paid your wages. But, on the other hand, I will set my face against those of you who are idle and dissipated, and prompt punishment will be inflicted for any breach of the peace or violation of law. In fine, I [illegible] your friend as long as you are true to yourselves, and obedient to the laws, and as long as you shall labor, no matter how feebly, if honestly and earnestly, to improve your condition. It is my duty, as far as I may, to render the government "a terror to evil doers, and a praise to them that do well;"—and this I will endeavor to do in relation to the whole people of the State of North Carolina, "without fear, favor, or affection, reward, or the hope of reward."

And now, "with charity for all, with malice toward none," I enter upon the discharge of the duties assigned me by the President, earnestly and solemnly invoking the good people of the State to aid me in the work of reconstructing the Government, and in restoring the State to the protection, benefits, and blessings of the Union.

Done at our City of Raleigh, the 12th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the eighty-ninth year of American independence.

To the Citizens of North Carolina.—The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a renewal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends,—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandies, Holland Gin, Liquors, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose these wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transactions with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britain have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liquors, and Liquores of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical Faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasant, and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and venders of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which with ordinary circumspection will insure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would, however, recommend, in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot, 22 Beaver street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandies, &c., in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especially recommend to all connoisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I would specially call the early attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to insure the fulfilment of their favors from the present large and well-select ed assortment.

REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

NORTH CAROLINA ADVERTISER.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE ESTABLISHED IN the City of Raleigh, an Agency for the purpose of buying and selling Real Estate in North Carolina. In connection therewith, and as auxiliary thereto, they will publish a double sheet, twenty-four column weekly newspaper, wherin will be advertised, free of cost, all lands offered for sale through their agency, and which will be devoted to the dissemination of information concerning the agricultural, mineral, manufacturing and other resources of the State. By means of competent Agents in in every county they will show the present advancement and special capabilities for future development of each.

It will be found, on investigation, that no State in the Union can present such a combination of advantages as North Carolina. Situated midway between the colder regions of the North and the more tropical climes of the South, its land stretching from the sea-coast to the mountains, yield bountiful returns of cotton, tobacco, rice, grain, fruits, pasturage, grapes and other products, while in its bosom lie rich mines of gold and iron, copper, lead, coal, and other minerals, its rivers afford water power sufficient for the most extensive factories, and in its forests are boundless supplies of naval stores, timber and material for tanning. Under the recent change in the system of labor it becomes the interest of proprietors to part with a portion of their real estate, and it is the object of this enterprise, through agencies in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, and other chief cities to bring these abundant resources of the State to the notice of men of energy and capital, to get together the seller and the buyer, and to aid in starting North Carolina in a career of prosperity heretofore unknown.

The ADVERTISER will be furnished free of charge to all customers, and to others at One Dollar per annum. The first number will be issued by the first of July, or sooner, if the type and necessary material already ordered, can be procured from New York before that time. Those desirous to advertise in the first number will please communicate to the undersigned at once. Moderate commissions will be charged where sales are made.

The Freedmen's Bureau.

Major General Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, has received several interesting reports from Assistant Commissioners in Louisiana and Alabama, showing the progress and condition of affairs among the freedmen in those states. Among others are the following:

BUREAU OF FREE LABOR,
MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 18, 1865.

T. W. Conway, General Superintendent of Freedmen in Alabama and Louisiana:

Sir—On last sabbath I wrote you in extenso, just before leaving for Union Springs, a small town forty-five miles southeast of this place. I returned last evening, and will now give a brief report of the week.

At Union Springs is stationed the 72d Illinois Volunteers, a small regiment of infantry, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Stockton. About one hundred freedmen were sent here and thrown upon the hands of the government by him some two weeks since. They walked in and brought only what they could carry. They might have found employment in that section, or been returned to their former plantations, if he had been determined and resolute in his course.

After this I received a communication from him, through General Smith, asking for instructions, which I immediately answered, but he failed to receive. He sent his Adjutant then and requested an agent to settle matters. I went in person as soon as the business of this office would allow my leaving.

On my arrival I found a disquieted and restless spirit among the colored people, which resulted from the fact that the planters had generally refused to enter into contracts with their hands, consequently the negroes did not know for whom they were working or for what wages. They had nothing to gain by working, and it was very natural that they should be idle.

The planters had circulated a report that President Johnson had revoked the Emancipation Proclamation, that their slaves were not free, and that they must do as they had always done. The result of all this was much abuse and ill treatment. I at once called a meeting of the planters on Wednesday, which was largely attended, crowding the church, many coming fifteen and twenty miles. I told them plainly of our system, that I was in duty bound to carry out our regulations, and had come among them for that purpose. I gave them full information of the modus operandi, answered their questions, and adjourned.

They went home and made contracts, and in three days' time the change was very apparent. I remained until order was restored in the neighborhood, but felt the urgent demand for an agency then for a short time. This seemed necessary—first, from the abusive treatment given to some of the colored people by desperate, cruel men, who live at a distance from any military post. There should be some one nearer than this city to look after the guilty parties, Second, the vast number of contracts to be made and examined demands an agency.

I therefore took the liberty to open an office there for a short time only, and as I could not secure the services of a commissioned officer I left a trusty sergeant in charge. I apprehended no more trouble from that quarter. While I do not think it best to multiply agencies, if it can possibly be avoided, yet I do think that many places in the State should be visited, and the planters addressed, many of whom are very ignorant of our system, and no question is of such absorbing interest to them. Many of them want advice, and will carry out any instruction given them.

Some are willfully ugly, and never like to hear the words of authority. I seek to advise and instruct the colored people whenever I can, and they receive my words as law and show a willingness to abide by them. You can judge of our business when I state that one hundred contracts per day are brought into this office. Added to this are complaints to be investigated, the helpless to be provided for, countless questions to be answered, and demands upon one's energy and time in a thousand different ways. I have been unable to get, as yet, a single commissioned officer detailed and assigned to duty in this department. Yet I have applied twice, and the third time in person. General Smith has cheerfully promised help, but it is very difficult to get.

Many of the officers wish to go home; many of the regiments are short of officers. Captain Campbell has been relieved, and a Lieut. is now in charge of the camp. Captain Brown has given me every assistance, and acted in my place while absent. I do not write this in a complaining spirit, but if we do not do all you wish: if we do not do all we most earnestly desire to accomplish, it is because we have not sufficient help. We have nearly finished giving out city passes, and hereafter one clerk can attend to that department. If it had been required to make contracts in duplicate it would have saved us much work in registration.

On the whole, our system is working well. Order is being restored. The colored people are showing a patience and industry which will make them, in spite of falsehood. They act worthy of freedom. Their patient industry should make them proprietors of the soil. I urge confiscation. I favor the amendment to the Amnesty Proclamation. Let ten thousand dollars be the limit of exception. This is right.

Hoping to hear from you soon, by letter, I have the honor to be, your obedient servant,

C. W. BUCKLEY,
Assistant Commissioner, &c.

The Stonewall.

The following correspondence has just taken place in relation to the "Stonewall."

MR. TASSARA TO MR. SEWARD—NO. 34.

[Translation.]

The undersigned, Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Catholic Majesty, has the honor to bring to the knowledge of the Honorable, the Secretary of State, that agreeably to official communications which he has received from Madrid, the order has been given to the Captain-General of Cuba to deliver the war vessel "Stonewall" to the person whom the government of the United States may commission for that purpose, the due formalities intervening.

In thus acting the government of her majesty judges that the reasons adduced in the note of the 30th of May last, are not sufficient to found the right of revindication which that of the United States believes it has over the fore-mentioned vessel. Animated nevertheless by the same noble and loyal sentiments which it has shown during the four years of the war happily terminated in this country, it omits entering into a discussion without object, and the Stonewall is placed at the disposal of the government of the United States.

With reference to the security for the expenses to the commander of the Stonewall of sixteen thousand dollars, which sum having been considered as the so'e and especial cause of the surrender of the vessel, it is believed that the government of the United States will not refuse to reimburse it; it being understood, nevertheless, that this is not a condition for the delivery of the Stonewall, which delivery is and must be considered absolutely unconditional.

The undersigned avails himself of this occasion to reiterate to the honorable Secretary of State the assurance of his highest consideration.

GABRIEL G. TASSARA.

To the Honorable the Secretary of State of the United States, &c.

MR. SEWARD TO MR. TASSARA.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, July 17.

The undersigned, Secretary of State of the United States, has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a note which was addressed to him on the 14th inst., by Mr. Tassara, minister plenipotentiary of the Queen of Spain. In that note Mr. Tassara informs the undersigned that her Catholic Majesty has ordered that the armed steam vessel called the Stonewall, which has been the subject of previous correspondence between the two countries, shall be delivered up to the government of the United States, and that this decision has been made with a waiver of discussion upon the question whether the demand of the United States could be maintained upon strict principle of international law. Mr. Tassara has been pleased also to assure the undersigned that the surrender has been ordered on the ground of the mutual good will which has happily prevailed between the two countries during the period of the insurrection which has heretofore so greatly disturbed the relations of the United States with many of the foreign powers. The undersigned is still further informed that while Spain will receive from the United States, as they have heretofore offered to pay, an indemnity of $16,000, the amount of the expenses which the Captain General of Cuba incurred in obtaining possession of the "Stonewall," yet that the surrender is tendered without making it dependent on such reimbursement as a condition.

Mr. Tassara's communication has been submitted to the President of the United States, and the undersigned has now the pleasure to inform Mr. Tassara that orders will be promptly given for the bringing away of the "Stonewall" from Havana, and for the reimbursement of the sum of sixteen thousand dollars to the Spanish government. It only remains to be added that this government appreciate equally the promptness, the liberality and the courtesy which have marked the proceedings of her Catholic majesty's government on this interesting subject, and that these proceedings will have a strong tendency to confirm and perpetuate the ancient and traditional friendships of the two nations.

The undersigned avails himself of this occasion to offer Mr. Tassara renewed assurances of his highest consideration.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

To Senor Don Gabriel Garcia Y Tassara, minister plenipotentiary, &c., &c., &c.

The Terrible Disaster.

Halifax dispatches of the 17th give the statements of Captain Hart, of the bark Meteor, relative to the loss of the Wm. Nelson. He searched a day and a half for the unfortunate passengers by the ship Wm. Nelson, the wreck of which was scattered for miles over the water.

Saved passengers say that on Sunday, the 27th ultimo, the captain of the hapless ship determined to fumigate her, and for this purpose ordered pitch to be taken into the lower hold, and red-hot irons to be thrown into it.—The pitch ignited and boiled over, and set the ship on fire.

When it was found impossible to save the ship, the captain and other officers, with the cabin passengers, left in the boats of the ship, which soon burned to the water's edge, carrying down over four hundred steerage passengers.

The vessel on board the Stonewall were destitute of clothing.

Captain Hart says that a ship, five or six miles off from his vessel, was seen by him, apparently engaged in searching for the wreck, and he thinks that she undoubtedly saved some of the passengers from the wreck, all of whom had been three days and nights in the water.

The male cabin passengers are rapidly recovering from the effects of their injuries, but the females are badly burned about the arms and legs, and are not progressing so well.

A later dispatch also from Halifax gives the following additional particulars:

C. C. Leach, Esq., United States Consul at St. Johns, N. F., has furnished the agent, for the press, the following as the statement of the most intelligent of the saved passengers of the ship William Nelson.

On Monday, the 26th ult., the steerage passengers were all ordered above and the ship was thoroughly washed and fumigated. The fire broke out about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The Captain, with his family and the ships crew, in two boats, left the ship about 2 P. M. Two other boats then attempted to leave, but these were injured and swamped. Many of the saved passengers are badly burned.

The ship seen by Captain Hart probably saved some of the passengers on board the wreck.

We have no names of the saved from the William Nelson who reached St. Johns, N. F.; they were thirty in number, nine females and twenty one males.

A Liverpool, England, dispatch of July 5th announces the arrival there of the steamship Lafayette, from New York. On her route she picked up from three boats forty-five passengers from the American ship William Nelson, from Antwerp for New York, with four hundred and eighty passengers. The fate of the remainder was not known. The Lafayette cruised about for twenty four hours in search of them without success. No other particulars are received.

Important from the Gulf.

New Orleans advices of the 15th inst. announce that Gen. Mejia, by command of Gen. Breckinridge, has delivered up the battery and other property received from the Confederacy.

The sugar and cotton crops of Texas will be short on account of the disorder occasioned by the employment of free labor.

The freedmen have been directed to remain with their former masters with the assurance that no forfeiture of their rights of freedom will be tolerated.

Texas dates of the 15 inst. say that State is infested by jayhawkers and thieves of the worst stamp. In the interior where the Federal forces have not penetrated they are doing much damage.

An interesting discussion is now going on before the United States District Court as to what constitutes the oath of allegiance.

The cotton market is rather quiet at 47c. for middlings. The depression in domestic exchange restricts operations.

Cairo dates of the 15th say that Major Putnam, of Gen. Canby's staff, has arrived there, en route for Washington, with the flags surrendered by Gen. Dick Taylor.

Stringent orders have been issued by the commanders of the cavalry marching through Texas to prevent the soldiers from straggling and plundering. None are allowed to enter private houses. All negroes leaving the fields to follow the army are driven back.

The Central Texas Railroad, a work of importance to the troops, is being rapidly pushed forward to completion.

No rain has fallen in portions of Eastern Mississippi since the 1st of May. The crops will be very short, and especially the corn crop.

The stock of cotton in New Orleans on the 10th inst. was 30,000 bales. Buyers were holding off for lower rates.

Four hundred bales of cotton, 300 hogsheads and 200 boxes of sugar have arrived there in the last twenty-four hours.

From Havana.

From Havana we have dates to the fourteenth instant. The report that Capt. Page, the late commander of the Stonewall, had offered his services to the Mexican Government is contradicted. He has taken command of the Ptarmigan, bound for Glasgow, and is to devote himself to the merchant service. Some officers of the Confederate naval service have entered the Spanish navy. The report is confirmed that General Breckinridge and Colonel Helm have gone to England. The celebrated blockade runner Zephine or Frances is to be called the Cleanfeages and is to ply between the port of that name and Havana. She has been bought by a company for that purpose.—The reports from Dominica continue to represent that the islanders are endeavoring to leave their homes. Monte Christi and Puerto Plata have been evacuated by the Spaniards. The failure of the crops at Sagua la Grande is reported.

The Freshet.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Monday, July 17.

A heavy storm set in here yesterday afternoon, causing the most extensive flood known in these parts since the year 1811.

Along the line of the Raritan River fields of grain and meadows are completely flooded, and the damage must be unprecedentedly great.

Houses and barns are nearly submerged and fences and highways are completely lost to sight.

At Middlebrook a bridge was completely undermined and caused the smashing up of a freight train at 1 o'clock this morning on the New Jersey Central railroad. In consequence of this disaster twelve 120-pounders were emptied into the flood, and a number of cars containing cattle, sheep and hogs, were piled into one another in ruinous confusion.

Many of the animals were saved from the wreck only to find a watery grave.

The flood at present prevents the employees of the road from clearing away the debris, and the bridge remains impassable.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Monday, July 17—P. M.

About two hundred feet of the road bed of the South Branch Railway near the bridge across the Raritan River is washed away by the freshet, causing a suspension in the running of the trains.

The water is now falling.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, July 17.

The raid of yesterday caused a severe freshet in the Schuylkill River causing great destruction of property.

A number of small houses on the banks of the river have been carried away.

Almshouse meadows are overflowed.

The trestle-work on the western side of the Chestnut-street Bridge is carried away.

The Schuylkill canal is badly damaged.

Several bridges along the Wissahickon have been carried off.

The streets of Manayunk are flooded.

Several mills are flooded, and a number of canal boats wrecked.

The track of the Morristown railway is under water, so that the trains cannot run.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Monday, July 17.

We have been visited by a heavy freshet in the Raritan river.

The lower part of this city is under water.

The rise in the river began about two o'clock this morning, and it rapidly rose ten feet above high water mark, but is now slowly falling again.

NEW SKIRT FOR 186[illegible]

The Great Invention of the Age!

Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW-PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (or two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, previously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible and durable Spring ever used. They cannot break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and ease to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt can be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place neatly and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted yarn, and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn cover which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, twice as flexible as single rods, preventing the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to.

All are made of the new and elegant Cording, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, durable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEBB, BRADLEY & GARY, (late J. L. Webb & Wm.) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Street, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, throughout the United States and Canada, Havana, Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies. Inquire for the Duplex Elliptic (or Double) Spring Skirt.
